

Fundamental of Corporate Liability and Sustainability

Course Overview

This 2-days course provides an overview of the key concepts and principles of corporate liability, S17A of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) Act 2009, which is part of an important organ of sustainability. The course further delves into sustainability by incorporating environmental, social and governance (ESG) agenda in business. The course aims to raise awareness and understanding of the legal and ethical implications of these topics for businesses and organizations operating in Malaysia and beyond.

Course Objectives

This 2-day course is aiming to:

- Create awareness of Corporate Liability and S17AMACC Act 2009
- Provide foundational knowledge of ESG agenda in sustainability
- Provide benchmarking for best practices to mitigate corruption and ESG risk

Course Outcomes

After attending this course, the participants will be able to:

- Acquire knowledge about Corporate Liability and S17A MACC Act 2009
- Identify gap between existing anti-corruption policy at workplace and best practices
- Initiate sustainability strategy

Module 3 Corruption Risk Assessment Methodology

- How to develop organization's anti-corruption policy
- Group work and discussion

Course Outline Day 2

Module 1 Sustainable Finance

- Learn impact of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and ESG on business strategy
- Recognize the risks of neglecting the ESG issues

Module 2 Carbon Accounting

- Define scope 1, 2 and 3 of carbon emission
- Identify carbon emission in construction and engineering Industry

Module 3 Sustainability in Human Capital Management

- Social consideration in managing employees
- Group work and discussion

Course Outline Day 1

Module 1 Introduction to Corporate Liability

- Identify key elements of Section 17A and implications of corporate liability
- Identify key sources of corruption risk

Module 2 Corporate Liability Risk Mitigation

- Define scope and requirements to mitigate corruption risk
- Best practice for governance framework
- Case studies

Khadijah Iskandar

BSc in Accounting (University of Denver, Colorado USA), Certified Credit Professional (CCP), Chartered Professional in Islamic Finance (CPIF), IBFIM Accredited Trainer and C-suite expertise in Financial Industry. Also, a Certified HRDF Trainer

+60 19 228 4743
+60 12 320 9124

khadijah.iskandar@restuefektif.com omar.hafiz@restuefektif.com
www.restuefektif.com

